

Welcome,

I would like to begin by acknowledging the land we are on lutruwita, with genuine respect for the traditional owners of this land, the palawa people. The palawa people, for many years, referred to this land as palanwina lurini kanamaluka meaning ‘the town near river Tamar’. I pay my respects to elders past, present and emerging and stand for a future that profoundly respects and acknowledges Aboriginal perspectives, culture, language and history.

We are privileged to call Tasmania our home. We have true cool climate, the purest air and water in the world that grows not only wine grapes but also barley, hops, and its distinct native botanicals. It is no wonder Tasmania has internationally recognised beer, gin and whisky. Also, did you know Launceston is a UNESCO City of Gastronomy? Our food culture is vibrant and rich, and our executive chef Nabin is devoted to showcase carefully sourced Tasmanian produce in a form of genuinely delicious dinner. I selected this 220-wine-wine list to reflect our beautiful island and elevate your Tasmanian dining experience.

Tasmania is small wine growing region. However, it is known for outstanding quality wines internationally, keep on punching above its weight – Tasmania accounts for only 1.2 per cent of the national crush by volume, 6.7 per cent by value in 2024! Even though it is also a single GI, Tasmania’s seven unofficial sub-regions show distinctive structure and characteristics in their wines. Moreover, Tasmania has a bunch of passionate grape growers and wine makers who believe in this island, even though the marginal climate keeps them on their toes. I have tried to capture the essence of it, although there is a lot to discover! We highly recommend you take time to visit vineyards and wineries while you are here to meet amazing people and taste more wines.

Tassie got me into wine. I still remember the first glass of Tasmanian Pinot Noir handed to me by the previous owner/sommelier Jimmy Welsh. It was pretty and fresh, showing layers and layers of flavours. All my taste buds were exploding – it was an eye-opening moment. Since then, I have become a wine student and a curious drinker. Currently, I am fascinated by Tasmania alternative grape varieties for their texture, flavours and amazing value– Grüner Veltliner, Savagnin, Gamay and Malbec to name few. On the other hand, there are some mind-blowing aged Tasmanian wines on the list – Holyman, Pressing Matters and Domaine A – Geez! They can age!

Please do not hesitate to ask our knowledgeable staff if you feel adventurous and want to push your palette today. You may just discover something you will love!

Cheers,

Sommelier/Co-owner

Ethan Han DipWSET
