

Welcome,

I would like to begin by acknowledging lutruwita, the land on which we gather today, and pay my deepest respects to its traditional custodians, the palawa people. For thousands of years, they have cared for this Country, including the place known as palanwina lurini kanamaluka—‘the town near the Tamar River’. I honour Elders past and present, and stand for a future that respectfully embraces Aboriginal culture, knowledge and history.

We are privileged to call Tasmania home. Ours is a true cool-climate environment, blessed with some of the purest air and water in the world—conditions that nurture not only exceptional wine grapes, but also barley, hops and distinctive native botanicals. It is no coincidence that Tasmania is internationally recognised for its wine, beer, gin and whisky.

Launceston is proudly a UNESCO City of Gastronomy, and our vibrant food culture is something we celebrate every day. Our Executive Chef, Nabin, is dedicated to showcasing carefully sourced Tasmanian produce through genuinely delicious cuisine. This list of more than 220 wines has been curated to reflect our island, explore the wider world of wine and elevate your dining experience.

Tasmania may be small in scale, producing only around 0.9% of Australia’s wine by volume, yet contributing approximately 5% of its value. It is a remarkable reflection of the quality and character found in our wines.

Although Tasmania is officially a single geographical indication, its seven sub-regions offer distinctive expressions of place and climate. Behind these wines are passionate growers and makers who embrace the challenges of a marginal climate in pursuit of excellence. This list offers a glimpse into their story, though there is always more to discover. If time allows, we highly recommend visiting our local vineyards and experiencing them firsthand.

Tasmania is what first drew me into wine. I still remember the first glass of Tasmanian Pinot Noir poured for me. It was delicate yet layered, vibrant and expressive—an unforgettable moment that sparked my curiosity. Since then, I have remained both a student of wine and a lifelong learner.

While I am still deeply in love with this island and its exquisite wines, I am always searching for something different—travelling the world through the wine glass. Among these pages, you will find a few icons alongside some wonderfully obscure wines: bottles you may never have encountered and, hopefully, some that will ignite your own curiosity.

Have a chat with our lovely team, and let us help you discover a new favourite.

Cheers,

Ethan Han DipWSET
Sommelier / Co-owner
